

ClientSide vs. RightSignature

Why Lawyers Consistently Choose ClientSide

ClientSide is the only E-Signature solution designed specifically for the legal industry; our core technology solution is used by businesses of all sizes, ranging from solo law practitioners to Fortune 100 companies. With our first-hand understanding of the legal industry, ClientSide partnered with a leading electronic signature provider to develop a solution that integrates seamlessly into law firms of all sizes, enhancing productivity without the learning curve that accompanies our competitors' solutions.

ClientSide is fully committed to our law firm customers, as manifested in our comprehensive training program and our direct customer support. We provide a distinctive customer service experience tailored to each firm and its respective needs, with a steadfast determination to answer any questions and resolve all problems expediently and efficiently.
